

WOW!

Charles and Judy

We have so much to say we do not even know where to start!!!

We will say thank you both for being such powerful conduits of God's encompassing love! We will pray for y'all everyday and every other time during the day when you pop up in our thoughts.

{I speak for the rest of our group when I say...

.....we will never be the same! Thank You -JESUS!}

Thank you both for your precious prayers. Here's an analogy for ya-

Thank you for recognizing that we each have been stuck in a can. Thank you for holding the can opener as God turned it and thank you now as y'all are praying for us, Rest assured God continues to peel back the lid of metal that has prevented our clarity of thinking - our ability to understand that God is will continue to use us in a real and tangible way.

Oh, how excited we are and how hard it is to wait expectantly as Christ Jesus begins to show up in our hands and feet!

Thank you so much for your hospitality and taking time out of your routine to love on us and to let us love on you!!!
